At the Buffalo smelter the boiler and stack were set up the past week and good progress made in the erection of the coke bin frame and engine house. Next week the whistle will be heard for the first time, as the boiler will be fired up and sinking resumed in the well. At the mine prospect work continues with good results. The ore bins and inclined tramway have been completed, and many other necessary, though unimportant, improvements made.

The reported wounding of a squaw, on Thursday, proved true. Deputy Sheriff Loneragan and W. Peery, under the guidance of Indians, visited the place of the alleged tragedy, about ten miles south of Globe, and found a female shot through the leg and arm. She said that Masse, a Chiricahua, renegade shot her. Masse will be remembered as the Indian who jumped from the cars, while in motion, in Kansas, when being taken with Geronimo's band, to Florida. On the same day that the squaw was wounded, an Indian reported that he had been robbed by another Indian and after holding him three hours turned him adrift without his horse.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

J. H. Elliott arrived in Globe on Tuesday last, bringing a letter to the senior editor of the Belt, from J. H. Baker stating that his eldest son, Ed, had been murdered by Indians at their ranch near Lookout, on the Sierra Ancha mountains, forty miles north of Globe. The information was telegraphed to Capt. Johnson, commanding at San Carlos, who immediately ordered out two detachments of troops and scouts under Lieut. Watson and Al. Seiber. Detachments were sent out also from Apache and other posts. Very soon after learning of the news Sheriff Thompson, Deputy Geo. Pemberton and William McPadden left for the scene of the killing, and at the present writing have not returned.

Ed Baker's body was found on Monday by L. K. Thomson who, with his family, was camped a mile and a half distant, making butler. Alarmed for their own safety, they started at once for Salt River, where they reported the killing, and a party from there went up to the Baker ranch, found the body of Ed Baker and buried it. The murder had evidently been committed two or three days previous, (probably on Saturday) as the body when found was in an advanced state of decomposition. Baker had been shot through the body in the region of the kidneys, and his head at most severed from the trunk by two blows from an axe, found near by.

The body was found about 250 yards from the house near a large tree scarred by bullet holes, and cuts made by an axe. The supposition is that young Baker had been trying a new rifle, bought in Globe a week or so previous, and the tree had served as a target. After firing a number of shots he probably took the axe and went forward to the tree, and was cutting the bullets out when fired upon and killed. Baker was alone when killed. The house had been ransacked of everything portable, three guns, ammunition, provisions, and even a bottle of calomel was missing.

The tracks of three Indians were discovered, and it is presumed the Sheriff's party, and troops and scouts took the trail upon their arrival. Indians belonging to John Dazin's band are strongly suspected of the murder. A party of five Indian bucks and several squaws were camped near Patterson's ranch on Coon creek, and on Saturday, the day that young Baker is supposed to have been killed, four of the bucks were absent, and Mr. Patterson was told they were out on a hunt. That evening the four bucks returned and the Indians hurriedly broke camp and departed.

Geo. Shute, Wal. Kenton and several others from Salt River, visited isolated ranches in the vicinity and notified occupants of the danger.

Ed Baker was a young man of exemplary habits, quiet, inoffensive, and well liked by those who knew him.

Ladies folding tables and felt covered lap boards just received at the Post Office Store.

The flood in Pinal creek yesterday evening is accounted for by the tremendous rainfall on Pinal mountain. In the vicinity of Kellner's mill it resembled a cloudburst, and created the wildest consternation there. Everything was afloat. The mill was partially submerged and filled with mud, slabs and timber; bridges swept away. Neffe, who was conveying Mrs. William Kellner from Globe to the mill, experienced no little difficulty in reaching his destination, but was obliged to leave his vehicle on the mountain.

You can find the very finest class of liquors and imported beer, at C. E. Taylor's.

The affairs of the Old Dominion Copper Company are in a satisfactory condition. The flow of water in the mine, which has been nearly 200,000 gallons per day for the past month, is decreasing. Rapid progress is being made with the new ore bins, and they will be completed about August 1st. The force of men employed by the company is larger than ever, and the outlook is promising for a steady run of two furnaces.

A very large assortment of reading, at the News Depot.

Frank Cline, on Thursday, appeared before the Board of Supervisors in regard to the raise upon his assessment return, and protested too vehemently, and in language not suitable to the occasion or complimentary to the board, which cost him ten dollars, and upon payment of which he was released from arrest, and immediately left town for the sequestered shade of his rural home.

J. F. Blandy, Territorial Geologist, arrived in Globe on Thursday. His visit to this district is for the purpose of forming an opinion of its capabilities as a mining camp. His object is a commendable one and should meet with a cordial response from our citizens who have the interest of our camp at heart.

A NEWST LETTER.

COLORADO RIVER AGENCY.

PARKER, A. T., July 6, 1890.

Eds. Belt:—As it is Sunday and all is quiet about the Agency, I will write you a letter, just to let you know how I am getting along. After leaving Globe I spent about one month in the city of the Angels and I can assure you that I denied myself nothing that I thought I wanted in the way of pleasure.

While in Los Angeles I met several former Globeites, Judge Porter is as fat and jolly as ever; the McDennells are still on top. I also saw your young friends, John and Frank Hise; they look as if you were the only friends they had on earth. I saw them several times standing on the street corners looking like two children that were lost. I understood that John had a real estate office somewhere on a back street. Chapel also has a real estate office.

Your old friend Eads (the type) is on the Tribune. Eads is a regular Bohemian. Some fellow tried to lick him but Eads objected, and in about ten minutes (like Tom Fielding) the other fellow put in an objection, or rather threw up the sponge. Eads is still a practical joker; not long since he found a Peter Jackson who wanted to fight a prize fight, so Eads told him that he knew of a nigger that would fight for five hundred, and that he (Eads) would put him in training and back him (nigger No. 1); so Eads got aboard a cable car and had that nigger run behind every afternoon for about a week, much to the amusement and mystery of all Los Angeles. When he had about worn that nigger out chasing cars, Eads had the gall to tell him that the fight was off.

I made a trip to Phoenix in June on some business for the Indian Department. On the trip I saw Joe Caldwell and Judge LaRue at the Hargua Hala camp, both old and feeble. I also saw Mr. James and Mr. Kaler, formerly of Gila county; old man Peoples keeps a saloon there; he inquired after Dr. Stallo; saw the old man Wickenburg, Dan Rice and lots of old time prospectors, who used to be about Globe.

I have had charge of the Colorado River Agency three months and 'tis said that I have made more improvements at the Agency than were made by all the former agents in ten years. (Gen. Biggs had charge for some time after he left Globe). I have ridden six hundred and fifty miles on horseback during the time I have been here. On the 4th of July we had a big celebration; had horse races, foot races, greased poles, burro races, tug of war, and last but not least, I had barbecued two whole beavers, and nine sacks of flour baked into bread, and the Mohave Indians got full for once.

I have about twenty-five hundred Indians under my charge, although they are not all on the reservation. The Hualapais, Chimabueves, and some of the Mobaves are off, but if the Government will adopt my plan, I will put them all on the reservation together with the Yumas, as there is at least fifty thousand acres of the finest land in Arizona on this reserve. I have made an estimate to the Hon. Secretary of the Interior, for about twenty thousand dollars, and with that I can make all these tribes self-sustaining.

Your friend "Dent" once had charge here and he built a ditch that cost the Government over a hundred thousand dollars, and it proved an entire failure, so far as the supply of water was concerned; but evidently not to Dent. Now I propose to put in two large vacuum irrigating pumps, and by that means I can utilize about nine miles of the ditch, and give all the Indians water to irrigate with. All I want is just for Gen. Morgan to recommend the appropriation to Congress, as I have friends on both the House and Senate committee on Indian appropriations, and I think there is no doubt about getting it through. The Mobaves have long been neglected by the Government; the agents have all been tenderfeet, and knew nothing about irrigating, and cared less; but if I am to stay here I want to have something to show what I have done. I have already guaranteed to the Government that I can have these pumps put in and warranted to fill the ditch with a constant flow of water or no charge. The pumps and boiler cost in Los Angeles on board cars only $2801, and it would cost a hundred thousand to get water from the natural flow of the river. The Indians will furnish the wood, so the Government will only have to pay the men to fire the boiler.

I closed my school on January 12th; will open again the first of September. My daughter Nora is with me; she shows the benefit of her schooling in California, and is of great assistance to me. She is now learning the Mohave language. I often think of Globe; it seems more like home than any other place. Regards to all my friends. Respectfully, GEORGE A. ALLEN, U. S. Indian Agent.

A picnic party, composed of Mrs. Geo. E. White, Miss Ella White, Miss Carrie Frakes, Miss Floyd Kennedy, E. F. Kellner and son, Dr. Huff and Floyd Belevins, spent Wednesday in the cool atmosphere of Pinal mountain.

The rainfall at Globe on Thursday and Friday measured .96 inches.

Ed. Laine left for California by this morning's stage. He expects to be absent two months.

A breast-pin was found on the street and left at this office for identification by the owner.

There will be regular services at the M. E. Church to-morrow. Preaching at 10:30 and 8 p. m. Evening subject, "The Fall of Man."

August Pieper, of Payson, was a visitor to Globe this week. The peaceful life of a farmer seems to agree with August, as he has visibly increased his adipose since he was last here.

J. J. Vosburgh, once a resident of Globe, but now of Los Angeles, California is here. He reports Mrs. Vosburgh well and enjoying the ocean breeze.

A shipment of 247 steers, purchased in the Tonto county by George Frisk for V. B. Wright, was made from here Monday to Emporia, Kansas. Mr. Frisk accompanied the shipment, and will be absent two or three weeks—Willcox Stockman.

The musical laugh of Early Hubbard was heard above the roar of the elements, on Thursday night. Where Early is, Boreas hides his head, but in order to give the god of the winds a chance, he proposes at stated intervals, to dig and occupy a cyclone cave.

The Plattsburg, Mo., Jeffersonian, of a late date, contained a telegram announcing a railroad collision in New Mexico, in which the name of J. Nicholson, of San Francisco, appears as one of the killed. John Nicholson, late of Globe, when last heard of was in that city.

Geo. Roggenstroh has returned from Willcox where he went with a large bunch of cattle bought by Geo. Frisk on his recent visit here. The drive was successfully made. Cattle from Gila county delivered at Willcox for shipment, are spoken of as among the finest seen there this season.

George Shute is in town and confirms our report of the killing of Baker. He, as well as others who examined the ground where the murder occurred, are strongly of the opinion that members of John Dazin's band are the guilty party, and suggests that that chief should be made to surrender the four bucks seen at Patterson's ranch.

Extra choice dates and figs at the Post Office Store.

Sam Richmond's house was broken into during an absence of a few days from his mountain ranch. Ingress was effected by a pick which was used to break the lock. He is minus provisions, saddle-bags, a saddle, bridle and some wearing apparel, but the thief was so kind, or thoughtless, as to leave Richmond's shotgun and pistol on the floor.

Large desk blotters 18x24 for sale at the Post Office Store.

Thursday night while Andre Maurel was telegraphing himself upon the resulting benefit from the then falling rain to his mellow crop, and just as he said in Parisian French, to his wife, "Isn't this glorious," lightning struck his house, which rudely interrupted his reveries and caused his thoughts to take a religious turn. The same effect, we are told, acted on some malicious miners, returning from the Globe mine, by a stunning report and a smell of brimstone. They had been indulging in songs foreign to spiritual exercises, when a nearer and a louder clap changed the words and the tune into something like Old Hundred.

A dispatch from Coldwater, Mich., dated July 13th, says: The remains of General Clinton B. Fisk reached this city yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and were met at the depot by the Grand Army of the Republic, the W. C. T. U., delegates from the Prohibition Club and a large concourse of people generally. As funeral services had been held in New York the day previous, the remains were taken at once to Oak Grove cemetery, where the burial service was read, requiem sung by the choir and the remains laid to rest beside those of his two children, who died many years ago in St. Louis.

1500 MILES. But She Got It.—A Sample of Letters Daily Received.

Only those who have tried it can know what it is that prompts one to send 1,500 miles for it to get it. Here is another of many such instances: DEAR SIR: I send $5, for which please return a half dozen of your vegetable paraffin. I have moved here from Sierra City, Cal. I took three bottles before leaving, hence I send all the way back to California for more. It was just before I left Sierra City, about a year ago, that I began to feel very miserable. My skin was very yellow, and I was all pain and aches, especially under my shoulders and in my head. The doctor said it was my liver, and gave me some medicine which relieved me somewhat. One of my neighbors happened in and told me she had started to take Joy's Vegetable Paraffin, and advised me to try it. I did, and with such good effect that I now feel like a new being. I have persuaded one of my neighbors here to take it, so part of this is for her and part for me. MRS. GEO. DELBRIDGE, Butte City, Montana.

The reader, if he or she has not tried it, has no idea of what California vegetable paraffin (which is but another name for Joy's Vegetable Paraffin) will do for disordered systems.

Al. O. Brawner, an accomplished smithy, after swinging round the circle for many months, is again in Globe.

Daniel McDonald met with a painful injury in the Globe copper mine on Monday last. He was vigorously wielding a pick, when a small, sharp piece of copper, detached by a blow, struck him on the inside of the right wrist with such force as to penetrate an inch. A small artery was cut causing profuse bleeding.

C. W. Ling and family, of San Carlos, who visited Globe the present week, had a rough experience returning home on Thursday night. They left here late in the afternoon and had reached the river when overtaken by the storm, and were glad to find shelter in a freighter's camp until Friday morning. Owing to the many Indian rumors current their friends at San Carlos were solicitous for their safety, and went as far as Coyote Holes in search of them.

Liquors of all kinds, at G. S. VAN WAGENEN'S.

W. W. Moore, of the Grand Opera House, Des Moines, is an early settler in that part of Iowa, and has had a great deal of experience in his time. He says: "At various times I have had acute attacks of bilious colic and violent pains in the stomach, and found nothing that gave me relief like Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Every person," he says, "should have a bottle." For sale by H. C. Hitchcock.

A heavy thunder storm passed over Globe, Thursday night, and for upwards of an hour and a half the rainfall was copious and the lightning almost incessant, followed by heavy thunder claps. Yesterday morning Mr. E. J. Cook, who occupied a room in an adobe house on Dr. Largent's premises, stated that he believed the house had been struck by lightning, and upon examination, sure enough, the evidence of the lightning's work was visible. The bolt struck the roof at the east end of the building and passed down the plank forming the east wall, and into the ground, without doing much damage. The shock also cracked the adobe wall in the adjoining room where Mr. Cook slept.

Phil Askins, of Tonto, Gila county, who has gained distinction as the most successful hunter of predatory animals in Arizona, has added to his remarkable record, a monster male leopard, killed at the head of the canyon in Greenback valley, on the 13th inst. His hounds bayed a pair of the ferocious beasts, and Askins succeeded in killing the male, but while he was thus engaged, the female leopard killed Sailor, one of his best hounds, badly wounded another, and made her escape. Mr. Askins, our informant, writes that the leopard killed by Askins measured 8 feet from tip of tip, and his forepaw, across the ball, 5 inches. The animal was a fine specimen; his coat a rich golden yellow, spotted with black, presenting a beautiful appearance. The leopard is a native of Central America and Mexico, and rarely met with in Arizona.
